- Activity #1:
- Call out a series of clues to guide kids to guess people who you “met” this week.
- • Once kids guess who the person is, guide them to come up with a motion to represent that person.
- Clues: (on the next page)

- WHAT YOU SAY:
- “How were you able to guess the person I met? Did you see them? Did you talk to them? (Pause.) No? Then how did you know who they were? (You gave us clue. You told us about them. You told us what they do.) Yes! Even though you didn’t see them yourselves, you knew who they were when I told you about them. [Transition] In the Video we’ll hear about Someone else you can know even though you’ve never seen Him.”

- Activity #3 –WHAT’S IN MY BAG?
- MATERIALS NEEDED: pillow case, a stuffed animal, a shoe, book, toy.
- Put one item at a time in the pillowcase. Keeping the pillowcase closed, have your child feel it and try to identify it. Check and see if they are correct. Change items and try it again with all items.
- WHAT YOU SAY:
 - “So, what’s in my pillowcase? (Pause.) How do you know? (Invite answers.) (Pull out the item for kids to see.) So, even though you couldn’t see what was inside the pillowcase, you knew what was inside! You felt that it was a (stuffed animal) and that it had (something on its head or on its feet). Then, [kid’s name] told you about it, and you knew for certain what it was.
 - “You know what? The same thing can be true about us and Jesus. Can you see Jesus? No, you can’t see Jesus, but you can know Jesus even though you’ve never seen Him. You can know Him because you can see and hear how He’s worked in others’ lives.
